The question then recurred upon concurring on the report of the committee on grievances and courts of justice,

Mr. Pratt then offered a substitute for said report,

The Speaker, gave it as the opinion of the chair, that it was not competent to offer a substitute,

From which decision of the chair, Mr. Pratt appealed to the house, and the question was propounded,

Will the house sustain the chair,

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Pratt then offered as a substitute for said report, the following;

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, that the judges of the several judicial districts of this State, shall receive in addition to the salary already allowed by the act to which this is a supplement, the sum of four dollars for each and every day they shall severally attend their respective county Courts, or the Court of Appeals, provided that the right to repeal or alter the per diem allowance hereby given, be, and the same is hereby expressly reserved to the Legislature as a condition precedent to the operation of this law; and provided further, that, this act
